Re: Jonathan Shockley v. Biotelemetry, Inc. dba Cardionet, LLC

WCAB No: ADJ12031731
Claim No: 040519008736

Dear Mr. Kweller:

My client is not ready to accept the cervical spine as an industrial injury yet because the QME was unable to review the medical records that were forwarded to him on a compact disc. He has issued so many supplemental reports in this claim, that I cannot tell who even sent those, so I am going to just have my secretary print and mail every single medical record in my file to ensure he has a complete set of records. In the meantime, it looks like your client is getting close on his 104 weeks of Temporary Disability.

If you have a Compromise and Release demand at this time please let me know.

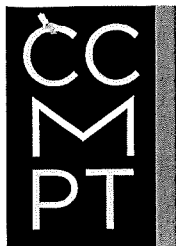

Kindest Regards,

Claim No: 040519008736

Dear Dr. Stoller:

Please find attached the complete medical file on this claim. Some of these records may be duplicative, but it looks like you have not received very many records, so I am sending our entire file. Please review these records and advise whether they change your opinion in anyway. Please comment specifically regarding causation to the neck.
